Through these portals
we entered, seeking the way of life. Within we found those things which give direction to life—
ideals, principles, knowledge. Through these same portals we leave; richer, better, wiser, because of having entered.

Miss Martha E. Reely

FOREWORD

What a glorious feeling to walk in and find the new auditorium all ready and waiting in its beautiful simplicity!

How we crave the hour now drawing near when it will be a part of us—

3:15

The crowd has gathered—Dedication exercises are well under way—

We have yet to hear from many of those who have helped to make this a reality—

4:30

A distinguished group who participated in the exercises, get together to renew friendships and chat—

Last, But Not Least

FOUR YEARS OF PROGRESS

as seen by THE SENIORS OF 1940

Four years ago, we, the Class of '40, took another step up the ladder of education in order to prepare ourselves to be better, happier, and more useful citizens. In searching for a word which might best describe our school during the four years we have spent within its walls, "progressive" seems to be the only word that does justice to its achievements. As our school has progressed, so we have accomplished, until now we are ready to go out into the world for ourselves.

The progress we have made has not been limited to one definite thing, however, but covers many different fields in our high school. The building itself has been improved and enlarged, for when we entered as freshmen from just about every section of the county, we found a school that was still incomplete and overcrowded. During our next year the annex was built, an improvement which relieved some of the overcrowded class rooms, and giving us the shop, the agriculture, and the home economics rooms. Later came six new class rooms to our main building, as well as a beautiful, new, and modern auditorium with the latest, up-to-the-minute stage equipment. At the same time our large gymnasium, which has the most modern lighting system, was built.

While the building itself has been enlarged and improved, the P. T. A. has seen that the beauty of the grounds has been enhanced by its gift of beautiful shrubbery.

Within the school itself there have been additions of another nature. One of these, important to all students, was the many volumes in our library, the gift of the P. T. A. The school has also purchased many books of great value and interest for the use of the students.

As the school has grown, our curriculum has expanded in proportion. The shop has given an interest to some boys who before had no interest whatsoever in any classes. With the girls, the study of home economics has become one of the most popular subjects. Printing and mechanical drawing have been offered. Still more recently Spanish has been added. Our curriculum has also been improved as a result of the addition of our gymnasium, for we now have a better place and also more equipment for physical education.

This statement concerning physical education shows that care has been taken in order that our physical development shall not be neglected. We have taken an active part in athletics and feel proud of the fact that we have been Fairfax County champions in both girls' and boys' basketball for at least one year. This year the boys were Northern Virginia Champions. Baseball has been one of our favorite sports, and we have rated near the top within the county. We have also done very well in football, considering that this was our first year. County field day was held at our school, and we are proud of all the blue ribbons that our girls and boys won.

Not only have we accomplished much in the actual games themselves, but we have also built tennis courts, horseshoe courts, a track, and a football field.

Athletics, however, is not the only extra-curricular activity we have had, for we have joined different vocational clubs, and have obtained much help from them. As a result, we are not so bewildered about our future work as we might have been had we not joined one of these clubs. After choosing the work we wish to follow, we have learned much of the necessary information in order to be successful in it, and we wish to express our deepest appreciation to our vocational director and our faculty advisors who have been so helpful to us in this way. Not a vocational club, but one that is equally popular, is our Glee Club. Through the persistent efforts of its directors, it has accomplished much, and has gone to Richmond several times where it has received high ratings. Still another activity outside the class room, and one to which all students look forward, is our field trips. They have been taken by some of our regular classes, as well as by vocational clubs, in order to give a better knowledge of the subjects which we have been studying. One of the most enjoyable activities has been the plays which we gave in both our junior and senior years. These plays have been important vents to the parents who have come to see them, as well as to the students who have taken part in them.

While there has been work, there has also been a certain amount of social activity. Our Junior-Senior Proms are always big events to which both juniors and seniors look forward. Home room parties at Christmas time are always enjoyed by all the students, too. But the biggest social event of the senior's life is the lovely ball sponsored by the Young Democrats and given for all seniors in the county. This year our Senior Class also gave a dance for all the seniors of our county in order to establish a better feeling of friendship among them. Our student government has also been active in giving dances which all students have enjoyed.

Student government, however, has not only been active socially, but has been prominent in encouraging school spirit, safety, sanitation, and good, clean athletics within the school itself. We feel exceptionally proud of this organization, because it was members of the class of '40 who wrote the constitution and put a strong, stable, student government under way.

From this account of our achievements, you can easily see how Fairfax High School has grown and has progressed during the past four years. Its buildings, grounds, curriculum, athletics, and social life have all been improved. We, who have watched and been a part of this improvement, hope that we have caught a spark of that progressiveness which will help us in building a successful future.

Isabel Swartz.

9:15—First Period

Glad that this is a unit on clothing and not transportation — wouldn't mind taking freshman science again next year—if it would be as much fun—

Better be careful the way you swing that hammer—might smash the whole works—here's hoping you farmers don't—

Gosh! Will these reports never end—Oh well, gang—guess if we get through Freshman Social Studies we'll have to like the rest o' 'em or lump 'em.

What? Another unit?—American Plays?—Gosh! Hope we'll get to go to the Library!

Wish I could check out that novel I saw—Oh! Well! s'pose I'd better check out this book on "One Act Plays"—only have a week on the unit—

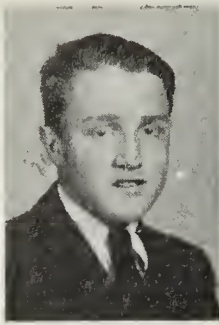

Like to read the funnies!—Guess maybe I'd better read these plays instead—"Tempus Fugit" so they say—

Gym Exterior

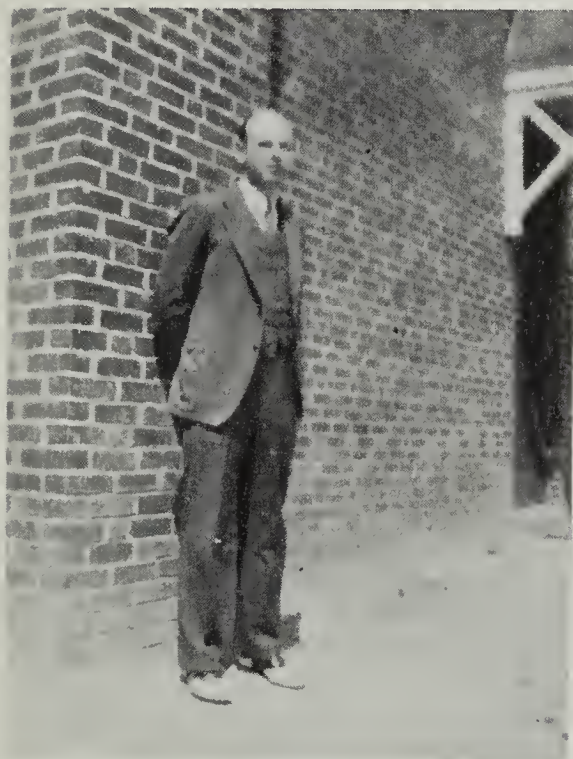

Coaches
Lawson, Gregory, Walker

An important addition to the necessary materials for a fine school curriculum is the new gymnasium acquired this year. This modern gymnasium is equipped with shower rooms, collapsable bleachers, mats, and complete football uniforms.

On behalf of the student body and faculty members of Fairfax High, we wish to express our deepest gratitude to those who made this possible.

This year the athletic curriculum experienced a new venture—football. New equipment has made possible the inauguration of this inspiring game—the fruits of three years efforts.

Though most of the boys were new to the experience of competitive football, the team, largely through the efforts of Coach Lawson, improved to avenge their 20-6 defeat at the hands of Culpeper by trouncing Manassas 25-6.

Up-and-in!

GIRLS' VARSITY BASKETBALL

The girls' basketball team made a very commendable record this year. To begin with, the schedule was unusually heavy for girls. However, this only seemed to spur them on to greater things.

The schedule for girls this year gave a total of seventeen games. These games were with some of the strongest teams in surrounding counties as well as with all the county schools. The girls won the title of Fairfax County Champions.

Congratulations, girls, on your swell pass work, accurate shooting, good guarding, and sportsmanship.

Is your radio reception weak?

Is your set noisy?

Does your set play intermittently?

Does your radio separate weak distance stations?

Would you think of driving your car without fective radio and take the chance of burning out tubes or the power transformer? . . . If your set does not perform as well as it did when it was new it should be taken to our radio shop. We will gladly test your radio with the most modern scientific precision instruments available and give you a
